EASLEY APPOINTS FULTON AS ACTING CHAIR OF ABC BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley appointed Ann Scott Fulton of Raleigh to serve as acting chair of the North Carolina Alcohol Beverage Control (ABC) Commission. George Bason of Raleigh previously held this position and has retired.

Fulton has been the general counsel of the ABC Commission since 1986. She served as the commission's chief hearing officer and legal specialist from 1981-1986. Fulton received her bachelor's degree from Wake Forest University in 1972, and her law degree from the Wake Forest University School of Law in 1975.

The ABC Commission is made up of three members who serve at the pleasure of the Governor. The main function of the commission is to enforce the ABC laws of North Carolina.
